

Letter from Joseph Pennell to A.P. Watt
14 Buckingham Street

March 17th 1900
A.P.Watt Esq.

Dear Sir,

In answer to your letter of the 15th I am glad the book on Grey Galloway is to be done. The terms are those agreed upon. Of course I retain as my own property the original drawings - with the right to exhibit and sell them.

I hope to get at the work in July or August and in the mean time I should be glad if Mr. Crockett will give me an outline or itinerary of the places he proposes to describe and the order in which he will take them.

Yours

J. Pennell
