

Morley's Hotel
October 28 1896

My dear Unwin

I have been laid up with a cold for ten days, otherwise I should have called on you. Next week I hope to see you if you can let me know what morning or mornings you are at liberty.

Every kind regard

Yours faithfully

SR Crockett