

Bank House

29th June 1895

My dear Unwin

All right. Do not fear that I shall enter into correspondence with anybody till I hear from you now that Wallace has failed. I am delighted to hear that the series is going to make a good commencement. I am much interested in it.

Of course Mr Mayhew's corrections would be of the very brightest and [] chiefly in the change of a few letters with derivations. They would not cost much. It is only the derivations that he proposes to alter.

Yes it is very sad about Wallace. I fear we will not have him a long time with us. He had that familiar grey white look which is so pathetic the last time I saw him. The books have arrived. Many thanks for obtaining them but there is some witty jester in your place who suggests that I should pay published price for them, a Guinea or some nonsense like that. Tell him that I appreciate his fun. I apologise if they are not [] books. Mummery is capital. I've not tackled Conway yet.

with every kind regard

faithfully yours

SR Crockett

after 5th of July we shall be at Seaton House St Andrews for the rest of the month.

My wife has gone there with the chicks.