Dear Unwin

Don't be a bear. I'll send you the whole of Mad Sir Uchtred tomorrow. I have been away for 10 days and recruiting in the wilds far from the letters of ranting and ferocious publishers The copy of the Lilac for corrections has not come. I shall give it to you in three days time after receipt. The Play actress when I promised it in August.

We are in great distress about the sad and terribly sudden death of Dr Nicoll's wife.

Ever yours
