

Bank House
Penicuik
Midlothian
October 24th 1894

Dear Dr. Macleod,

'Chap and lie' there, as we say at the channel-stanes. That is 'tis signed and agreed that when I come to Glasgow, I bide with you.

For the which thanks many. For the other matter, more "Chair!" Chair! "Order! Order!" I mean.

Dear Man. I hae been greeting. Marget Wilson o' Glenvernock is drooned at the sands of Blednock.

Lag and Will Low pat her doon at sax this morning an a' her bonny hair is dabbled wi' the saut water.

Waes me! I can do nae mair the day!

Ever

S.R. Crockett