

Letter from A.P. Watt to S.R. Crockett

1st July 1904

Dear Crockett,

Just a line to put on record that in accordance with our conversation of yesterday morning I am writing to Dodd by tomorrow's mail that we agree to waive the payment in advance and on account of royalties on the American edition of "Grey Galloway". I do not think there should be much doubt about our getting the amount out of the royalties and I hope, therefore, that this concession will not in the long run cost us anything.

I am, dear Crockett,

Yours sincerely,

A.P. Watt
