

December 1st 1893

Dear Mr Unwin,

I am sending you the second part of the Raiders – making rather more than half of the whole – I have been very careful, though I fear the intricacy of some pages will [cause] evil language among the Comps. Still, it is all there as I want it. The second part will not be so difficult. It is much brisker in action.

Is there any chance by the way of getting the first thirteen volumes of St Nicholas (Vols 1 – XIII) for a Xmas present to Sweetheart. I would also like a copy of Miss Symond's Doge's Farm. I met her not long ago at Davos soon after her father went there, and went tobogganing with her – though it might have been her sister.

Ever yours

S.R.C