

Bank House
August 11 1894
Dear Unwin

As you say our letters cross. I am glad to hear about the new edition of Sir U. The Scotch Provincial mind is much exercised about it. One paper plainly says that I must be mad. However, I think there is a method in it and for the sake of my family I hope there is. I shall correct the Illustrated Stickit in batches and send them to you. I had out Dudgeon yesterday. He turns out to be a very dignified old chap and extensive land owner. He is very philological and antiquarian and knows Galloway thoroughly.

He will send you the entire Lilac glossary next week which I hope will not be too late. Thereafter he proceeds at once with the glossary for the stick it. I answered that fool in Llandudno.

I hope you have a good holiday.

with kind regards

faithfully yours

SRC.