

Bank House
June 22nd 1894
Dear Unwin.

I shall, as you say, keep the Lilac proof back until I have 100 pages or so and then send it. There are hardly any mistakes except a few literals. I think it would be wise to print the glossary in a double columns and bind it at the end of the book. It is, as you say, too small for a special pamphlet. I should be glad to go over the proofs. I am glad you are getting on with the Illustrated Stickit. It has not yet arrived, but I shall go to work upon it when it does.
with kind regards faithfully yours. SRC,

(Saturday morning and you say sent off on a Thursday. Hope all right.)