

June 15 1894

Dear Unwin.

By the 17 guns of Port Royal no!!! Did I ever hear tell of anything so cool, breezy and refreshing. Not send me proof of the Lilac. I'll see you especially and particularly hanged, drawn'd and quartered first. I have a reppitation now, mind you and no tinkers type. So send me proofs made up into pages. I shan't need galley proofs and shall make as few corrections as possible. But proofs I'm maun hae. Also, I wanted a proof of the first sheet. Dedication of Sir Uchtred. Go ahead without the telegraph poles. Denholm Young has gone to pot or Jericho or somewhere or is in hiding. I can't reach him anyway. I don't know when he will again reach parts that are known.

with kind regards

yours Brimstoneiously,

SRC.