The Daily News man was quite wrong in the 'impossibility'. I took it from a book of the period and shall get somebody to say so. SRC,

Dear Unwin.

Going over 'Sir U' I note one or two slips which could be set right. These are all on a page I must have overlooked.

page. 85 line 8 for 'whap' read 'whup'.

page. 87 line 3 for 'mankin' read 'maukin'

Page 87 line 15 for 'the breathe' read 'to breathe'.

These might be noted for the second edition.

I see the reviews of various kinds are beginning to come in. The Daily News one was just one 10th as long as the title book itself so it would seem as if it were to make some stir.

kind regards

as ever

I'm glad to note in the Westminster Gazette your advert of the 7th Raiders and the 6th Raiders.
