

FCM.

19th may 1894.

My Dear Unwin.

Kindly advised the gentleman who wrote. out the otherwise excellent advertisement for this week's papers that the Stickit minister is in its 6th edition. Conway is a magnificent book. I never tire of looking at it. I am going away for some days and I'm taking it with me. I wish I could have come for Saturday, but as I only got the invitation this morning, it is of course impossible. I wish you a good, dry night. With regard to the Playactress, I think you will be satisfied with her when you get her. I am reserving the last fortnight in August for her revision. When we get flitted, I will send you the copies of the 5th Stickit and get the 6th as you are good enough to exchange.

The other things, as you say, can wait with kind regards.

Yours faithfully.
