

Bank House
(on FCM paper)

May 14th 1894.

Dear Unwin. Many sincere thanks for [Conway.] It is a noble book and greatly to your credit. I am sure you will earn what you deserve. I am just home from St Andrews and fearsomely busy. But I cannot help writing to thank you. Some day soon I shall send you something in return for your kindness. I anticipate great delight glancing between the leaves. Watt does not want the Playactress back. Some mistake. He says he arranged with you to issue it in November and I am to send in manuscript by August the 30th. [] I shall to the mark.

Yes, you clean bowled me that time about the share list. I had quite forgotten
Ever
SRC