Fleet Street
November 11th. 1903.

Dear Mr Watt

I now return the two draft agreements and shall be glad if you will make the alterations suggested. That is to say 13 as 12 and £400 in advance of royalties instead of £500. I think it will be best to keep to the 30% on the colonial edition rather than the 4d but of course we should prefer it at 25%. I note there may be a little variation in the time of the serial and that you indicate that this can be settled later on if desired. Should it be possible to alter the book publication from April 1906 to the autumn we should be very glad. I mention this in the case you are able to do it at a future date.

believe me

faithfully yours

Percy Clark.
