

Bank House
August 10 1894
Dear. Unwin

Thanks for your kind note. There is I think nothing to bother you about at present. The Playactress is in JM Barrie's hands. He was acting (for) [market] with the assistance of his wife. They are at Patesina in the Eugadine but as soon as he sends it back I shall go over it. I am great at going over. We must have "half" brother out in Sir U. I suppose I meant 'younger.' I shall send a note to the Llanddiduo loon. I have an average of about 50 letters a day. I can't answer them all. I have one from old Professor Masson this morning about Sir U which I wish we could quote. It is worth all the paper criticisms in the world. You will see from the Globe and other papers that Sir U rather puzzles the 'junior reporter' who does the 'minor fiction' for? He can't make it out why, having a comfortable home, Sir U should 'act so.'

By the way care of Dr Alexander Whyte, Inverdrue, Aviemore NB will find me during my holidays.

When you come back I shall be sending you Sweetheart Travellers for next year if you care for it. I shall also do a 3rd story of about Playactress length and perhaps by and by we might use sir. U, the play actress and that in a uniform six shilling volume like the others. that at least is an idea. the Barries are coming to us in the end of September for a week or two, Lang also could you not look in if you are in the north?

Ever yours
SR Crockett.