Dear Watt,

I write this to state once for all that I will be bound by your judgement (i.e. the judgement of the firm A.P. Watt & Son) and uphold your decisions in all things during my absences abroad.

This applies equally to decisions when I am at home and accessible.

The only thing I would wish to be consulted about is the price at which my past books are to be published in the United Kingdom. For America, both in serial and in book form, you are quite at liberty to do what seemeth good to you.

I have never in 12 years questioned a decision of yours, nor had reason to complain of any one of the very many agreements you have made for me.

Faithfully yours always,

S.R. Crockett

Private addition to the foregoing

From money's accruing to me Mr. A.P. Watt is authorised by me, in case of demand from Mrs. S.R. Crockett to pay her One Hundred Pounds when she asks - but not more than one hundred for each quarter of the year.

There is no likelihood of this occurring, Mrs. Crockett being amply supplied directly from the Clydesdale Bank Penicuik, but in the case of any complication, Mr. Watt will please communicate with Mr. James Anderson, Agent, Clydesdale Bank, Penicuik, who knows all the circumstances and will assist Mr. Watt's decisions.
