

Bank House
28th March 1895
My Dear Unwin

Many thanks for your letter. I shall carefully reconsider the whole subject of reprinting the chapters of Cleg. I am much obliged to you for your kind consent. I don't think that it would hurt either the Stickit or the Cornhill story. As you say, there is no hurry at all about the Century. I am quite willing to wait as long as you like only my books are getting filled up somewhat a long time ahead.

with every kind regard faithfully yours
SRC

That is a good advert in this month century: well put together.

PS by the way I never got the copy of Tusseraid's Wayfaring Life you said you had sent me. Has something happened to it?