

Bank House

July 1st 1895

My dear Unwin

You mistake! I do not sail in the boat of Mister Hall Caine, my dearest enemy. Not if I know it. I want all the discount I can get. Indeed, I want the book for nothing if I can get it.

Jolly, glad to hear of the £1600 pounds. I am exceedingly pleased as well I may.

The wife and chicks are off to St Andrews. I remain to finish Cleg Kelly and The Grey Man. I am not using the Stickit Minister chapters, but referring to them in a footnote which will be good for us both.

ever yours

SRC.