My Dear Unwin

Many thanks for your kind letter and for the Cyclopaedia of names which duly arrived. It is a splendid work and will be of great service to me. I send you a letter from Wylie in which as you will observe he asks me to speak to you about the Raiders and the Stickit Minister. Of course do exactly as you feel about the matter. But it is a worry to me to get his letters. He has been writing to me every two or 3 days to mention it to you. Of course you have only to say to him that in spite of Mr Crockett's note you must of course conduct your business in your own way.

With regard to the matter of Stevenson's poem in the Pall Mall I have a letter from Sydney Colvin explaining the whole thing which I shall send you in a day or two. Kindly send it back at your convenience. I think we might very well give permission to these student people to publish 'the tutor of Curleywee.' I am rejoiced to hear that you are to publish the Grey Man. I think it should be my best work.

with kind regards
faithfully yours

Please don't publish my letter about Becke. It was meant to be private. I shall write about him somewhere.
