My Dear Unwin

In the revisal of the three glossaries I should be very glad to bear any expense there might be. It would not be very much. Would you kindly send copies of them? That is a bound copy of the book containing the 3. to Rev A.L. Mayhew 18. Bradmore Rd, Oxford. I am indeed sorry to hear about Wallace. I herewith return his letter. I fear he is not in a good way. He looked very delicate the last time I saw him. I am sorry you have been put to this great inconvenience but if you do not manage to secure anyone, I shall try to think of a substitute. By the way, it has just occurred to me that Mr John Geddie of the Scotsman whose book 'the fringes of Fife' has done very well might suit you your purpose. Kindly tell me if you think so, and I will communicate with him. He is a valuable influence to have on our side. Did you get a letter from me and to send [Mummey's] Alpine book and other travel books to me abroad, for which I should settle upon my return. I did not hear from you or get to the books. Perhaps you would tell me if you got the letter.

Faithfully yours

SRC.
