

10th March

MEM

Dear Mr Unwin

Will you kindly send to my lodgings address SRC c/o Mrs Henley 11 Craven Street a dozen copies of The Raiders and any stray fiction you have worth reading when a man is in town and wants a book. Do look out some'at

Yours

Crockett

TYPED THEN SIGNED NO DATES

I am coming to town on Monday 12th March and if it's convenient for you would call at your office on Tuesday morning (13th Feb) at an hour convenient for you, and have a general talk over things. Will that do? There are many points of past and future I should like your mind upon. Please do not address anything here after Friday or Saturday.

My town address will be

c/o Mrs Henley, 11 Craven Street.

I am not going to a hotel but to a quiet lodgings this time. I shall have work to do. Indeed I am bringing up The Playactress to see if I can get something done to it. It will need a considerable doing up, before it has the polish of the Raiders. I have been over the latter again carefully in its present handsome form, and there are hardly half a dozen changes to make. Am rejoiced to hear of the editions going off well. Of course (teaching egg-sucking again) you will watch and have the second edition ready to put on the market as soon as the first is exhausted. There was an awkward hiatus of three or four weeks when no copies were to be got at least in Scotland.

Your letter in Scotsman duly appeared Tuesday morning

Ever yours

SRC