April 2nd 1894

Dear Mr Gosse,

Here is the Raiders, I hope you will go raiding and like it.

I have many things to thank you for in the years that are past, so much so that if I were to begin this quire would not be able to contain the word I should write. Specially do I remember the two splendid months in a tent with no modern literature but your two volumes of essays.

I had the latest with me when I went and saw an advertisement of Josef in a library somewhere, so I arranged with a man going to market to wire Thin of Edinburgh to send a copy to Newtown Stewart by train which this man got on his return and by forced marches brought it to me.

A true tale.

Do not forget your () It was a great pleasure to see you yesterday

Yours cordially
