Dear Mrs Butler,

I am a miserable purblind bat! And I did not know you on the links today (to my shame) till my partners told me. May I lift my cap now and make my apologies?

Also may I come some afternoon and bring you little girl a bookie of mine all about Maisie, your kindness to whom I have not forgotten. The book is no out yet but it will be a pretty one when it does come,

Very faithfully yours

S.R.Crockett
